

A ONCE IN A LIFETIME CAREER OPPORTUNITY...

TO PLAY YOUR PART IN MAKING IRELAND A BETTER
PLACE FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Our client, Barnardos, is Ireland's leading children's charity, spending €20m each year and touching the lives of 12,000 children and families throughout the country. Barnardos' Vision is an Ireland where childhood is valued and all children and young people are cherished equally.

Having spearheaded major organisation growth and development over the past 15 years, Barnardos' current Chief Executive, Owen Keenan, is stepping down. His legacy is a strong, stable organisation that has just announced details of an exciting and ambitious long term plan to transform the lives of vulnerable children and young people in Ireland. Barnardos currently employs over 300 staff and 230 volunteers.

Barnardos' Board therefore seeks to appoint a:

■ Chief Executive

- of the highest calibre to further develop Barnardos as a world class children's organisation.

Reporting to the Chairperson, you will be accountable for the leadership, management and direction of Barnardos within the strategies and policies determined by the Board. You will bring a practical and professional approach while ensuring Barnardos' values and ethos are maintained. You must be a strong communicator with team working and networking skills and the ability to manage and develop key relationships effectively. You will be an independent thinker with excellent strategic management skills and a proven track record of achievement in your career to date.

With this dynamic and rewarding position comes an attractive remuneration package.
