

The One Foundation

■ Programme Leader – Social Entrepreneurship

The One Foundation, a new charitable foundation in Ireland, seeks a passionate and highly skilled individual to lead their Social Entrepreneurship programme.

Applicants will be extraordinary individuals with unprecedented ideas for change in their communities. As programme leader, reporting to the Executive Director, you will lead the design, development and implementation of the programme. You will seek out exceptional people that are innovative in their approach and successful in their impact on social issues, cultivating those that would benefit from the One Foundations funding input and expertise.

If you are passionate about solving Ireland's social problems and committed to developing pattern breaking solutions to complex social problems, you could be "The One".
